DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

a. Group I, claim(s) 1, 2, 4-6, 8, 10-15, and 18 are drawn to an adhesive tape.

b. Group II, claim(s) 7, 20, and 21 are drawn to a method of removing the adhesive tape.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I &II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the common technical feature in all groups is a temperature-indicating material disposed within or on the film substrate. This element cannot be a special technical feature under PCT Rule 13.2, because this element is shown in the prior art. US 3,661,142 to Flam discloses a temperature-sensing patch having a flexible backing having a pressure-sensitive adhesive coated on one side of the backing. Further, a plurality of discrete temperature-sensitive, color responsive indicators adhered on the other side of the tape backing (abstract). Therefore, there is not common feature that meet the definition of "special technical feature" as defined by PCT Rule 13.2.

3. If Applicant elects Group I, then this application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

4. The species are as follows:

a. Group A: The substrate comprising an aliphatic polyester, polyvinyl chloride, polycarbonate, polycaprolactone, polyethylene terephthalate resin, glycol modified polyethylene terephthalate resin, polybutylene terephthalate resin, polyamide resin, polyvinylidene fluoride, shape memory resins, L-lactic acid, D-lactic acid, glycolic acid, 3-hydroxybutyric acid, 4-hydroxybutyric acid, 4-hydroxyvaleric acid, 5-hydroxyvaleric acid, and 6-hydroxycaproic acid. Please elect one polymer from the Group A.

If Applicant elects the shape memory resins as a species from the Group A above, then Applicant is requested to elect a single shape memory resin from the following: a polyisoprene type resin, a styrene-butadiene copolymer, a polynorbornane type resin, a polyurethane type resin, a fluorine-containing resin, e-polycaprolactone, and a polyamide resin.

b. Group B: The temperature indicating material comprises a higher fatty acid ester, mercury iodide complexes of cholesterol, bianthrone, cyanine pigments; spirofuran-type compounds, triphenylmethane-type Ca and Mg salts, cobalt; nickel; iron, copper, chromium, manganese, and lead. Please elect one polymer from the Group B.

5. Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

6. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

7. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner: Claims 2, 4, 8, 10-12, and 14.

8. The following claim(s) are generic to Group I: 1, 5, and 6.

9. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Each of the polymers listed in the Group A and Group B are chemically distinct and there is no evidence that they are obvious variants.

10. Due to a complexity involved in the restriction requirement, a telephone call was not made to Applicant's attorney/agent.

11. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

12. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103 (a) of the other invention.

13. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
